

4 Ways Invoice Pay Sets Up Accounts Payable for Success

Finance teams are focused on minimizing risk, increasing efficiency, and — ultimately improving cash flow.

But for accounts payable (AP), money is going out, not coming in.

And with paper checks, you're paying even more to pay your vendors and suppliers. Not to mention the risks associated with late or lost payments.

It's time to get AP realigned to the goals of your finance team.

"Now we're able to dissect our purchases, just to this level that we never really thought was possible, just because the administrative load would be
